SENATE BILL NO. 256 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 256, A bill to be entitled "An Act to provide for the organization or admission and the regulation and taxation of incorporated mutual insurance companies; repealing Chapter 6, Title 28, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and all other laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith; providing a penalty for the violation of the provisions thereof, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Wallace of Freestone offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Senate bill No. 256 by striking out subdivision "C" of Section 7 thereof, and renumber the other subdivisions of Section 3 accordingly."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Morse moved the previous question on the passage of the bill to third reading and the main question was ordered.

Senate bill No. 256 then failed to pass to third reading.

Mr. Barnett moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill failed to pass to third reading and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

HOUSE BILL NO. 72 WITH SENATE AMENDMENTS.

Mr. Wallace of Freestone called up from the Speaker's table, with Senate amendments, for consideration of the amendments,

H. B. No. 72, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Chapter 5, Acts of the Third Called Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature, Article 7065, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, by providing for an occupation tax upon wholesale dealers in gasoline equal to three cents per gallon on all such gasoline so sold by any such dealer; repealing all laws in conflict with said amendment, and declaring an emergency."

The Speaker laid the bill before the House, and the Senate amendments were read.

Mr. Wallace of Freestone moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. Sheats moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments, and that a Free Conference Committee be requested to adjust the differences between the two houses on the bill.

On motion of Mr. Wells, the motion of Mr. Sheats was tabled.

Question next recurring on the motion of Mr. Wallace of Freestone, it prevailed by the following vote:

Reason for Vote.

Mr. Speaker; I vote "nay" on accepting the Free Conference Committee report. I believe we could have better served our constituents by not accepting the report now, and that we could have made a better trade with the Senate on the license tax bill by withholding our acceptance.

I have voted consistently for a three-cent gas tax and favor same; at the same time I want the license tax adjusted.

STELL.

Mr. Teer moved to reconsider the vote by which the House concurred in the Senate amendments and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 50.

Mr. Beck called up for consideration at this time the Conference Committee report on House bill No. 50, the report having heretofore been read second time.

On motion of Mr. Beck, the report was adopted.

CORRECTION FOR THE JOURNAL

On pages 755 and 756, proceedings of the Journal, Mr. Wallace of Free-stone should be shown as voting "yea" on suspension of the constitutional rule to place Senate bill No. 117 on its third reading and final passage, and it should also show that he voted "yea" on the final passage of the bill. This error was discovered too late to make the correction in the proper place.
